

Unconventional Life Drawing.

Due to a fantastic response to the first 'Unconventional Life Drawing' evenings, Three Stories Artspace proudly presents the second season!

Intrigued?

The quirky & creative Richard Granville-Smith will be your guru, as he takes you through the unconventional life drawing experience as only Richard can.

"These Life Drawing workshops are aimed at nurturing experimental and explorative approaches to working from the figure, where the process is one of discovery. Imaginative and observational experiences are developed in unison. Students will work from the figure in a range of imaginative set ups and with different approaches." RGS.
